THIS IS OUR YEAR

THIS IS OUR YEAR

Look! There's the J.G.H.S. Band.

How exciting to leave early because of snow

Gone except for pictures and memories

See what liquid air can do!

"Miss Cedar Chest of 1959"??

Catching up on the latest magazines.

You call that painting?

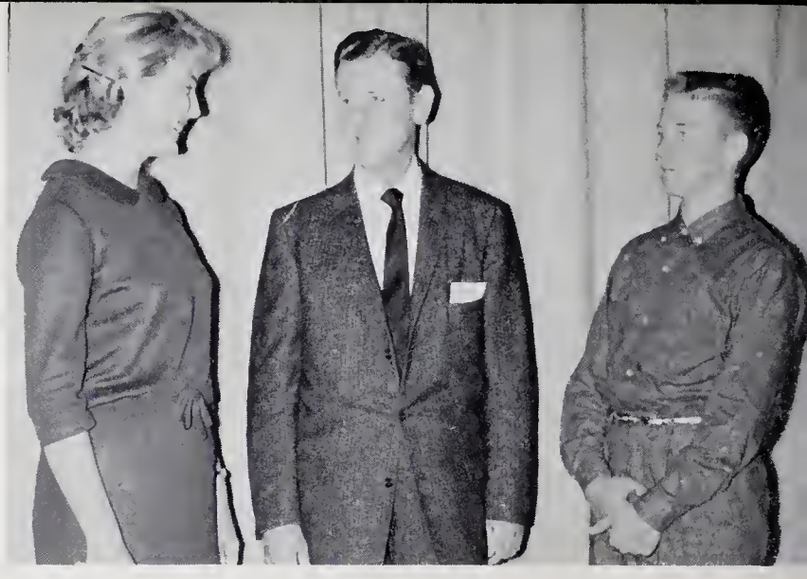
Look at the birdie!

A short, easy way to drill holes.

You play it like this.

School was never so quiet or white.

THIS IS OUR YEAR



Talking to a congressman, no less.

Now students, Latin is easy.

People, write clearly.

Everybody aboard and ready to roll.

See how pretty the new rings are?

The band dines and rests at Duke park.

ALMA MATER

We are here, dear John Graham High
To laud our glories to the sky.
Sons and daughters true,
And we'll stand by you.
We will wave our banners gay
As we go marching on our way.
So to you, our Mater dear,
We'll never fail, never fail.
Hip! Hip! Hooray!

Fill us with loyalty;
Alma Mater is your name.
Strong are we, brave and free,
Though to a far land
Our footsteps may wander,
Take, take our fealty,
So to you our names proclaim.
Alma Mater, Alma Mater, Hail!

Ann -

I really can't express in words what our friendship has come to mean to me. I practically live at your house and I have a deep affection for your mother and daddy. Ann, you are a very cute, sweet and nice girl. You have a wonderful personality and I know you have had experience in doing so many things in case that you will succeed in all that you attempt to do in the future. You have made a wonderful majorette and I'm sure you'll keep up the good work next year. I want you to remember all the good times we've had together. In case I could never forget them. When our ways part, I want our friendship to continue. I wish the best of luck, love and success to a very wonderful girl and friend.

Love always,
Judy

ANNUAL STAFF

Each year the Annual Staff compiles and publishes the school yearbook. We have fussed and fumed as well as laughed and joked our way through the editing of our 1959 Warrentonian. We have frightened you with our flashing cameras and annoyed you with the magazine drive in order to compile this book. But we have learned that all these activities are necessary if we would produce a worthwhile book.

SEER STAFF

During the school year, the Seer Staff publishes several editions of our newspaper, the Seer. Every student waits anxiously to see if his or her name is mentioned--read up on current jokes and catch up with the latest news.

The Student Council encourages through home room representatives good sportsmanship and good citizenship. It sponsors such projects as "hall monitors", campaigns for lost books, and the annual "Christmas Pageant."

Climaxing the year of Student Council projects, a large political rally is held late in the spring as students campaign for officer positions for the coming year.

Dear Ann,

I'll never be able to tell you how much your friendship means to me. We have really had some great times together (dating, South Hill, Raleigh, Va. Beach). Ed and I really had fun with you and a certain person during the Jr. Play.

Well, we'll soon be Seniors. It doesn't seem possible, does it. I just can't wait until Graduation Day.

1957 - 1958 JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

"The Moderns" supplied the atmosphere for our prom.

The pagodas, trees, lake, and mountains provided the scene for our "Shangri-la".

Our flame-spitting dragon was soothed by the sweet dance music of "The Moderns".

Beneath the Spanish moss and Japanese lanterns, couples danced to the dreamy music of the dance band. "Shangri-la" is now only a majestic memory.

Dear Ann,

You are one of the sweetest, niccst, cutest, and most capable girls I know. Next year will really be a big one for you. I know that you'll be called on to do "everything under the sun" and I feel sorry for you. The annual will be one big headache, but under your capable direction it's sure to be an excellent one.

I'm looking forward to being at Meredith with you (I hope.) Best of luck in all your undertakings. You're a born leader, and a good one. Your friendship has meant much to me.

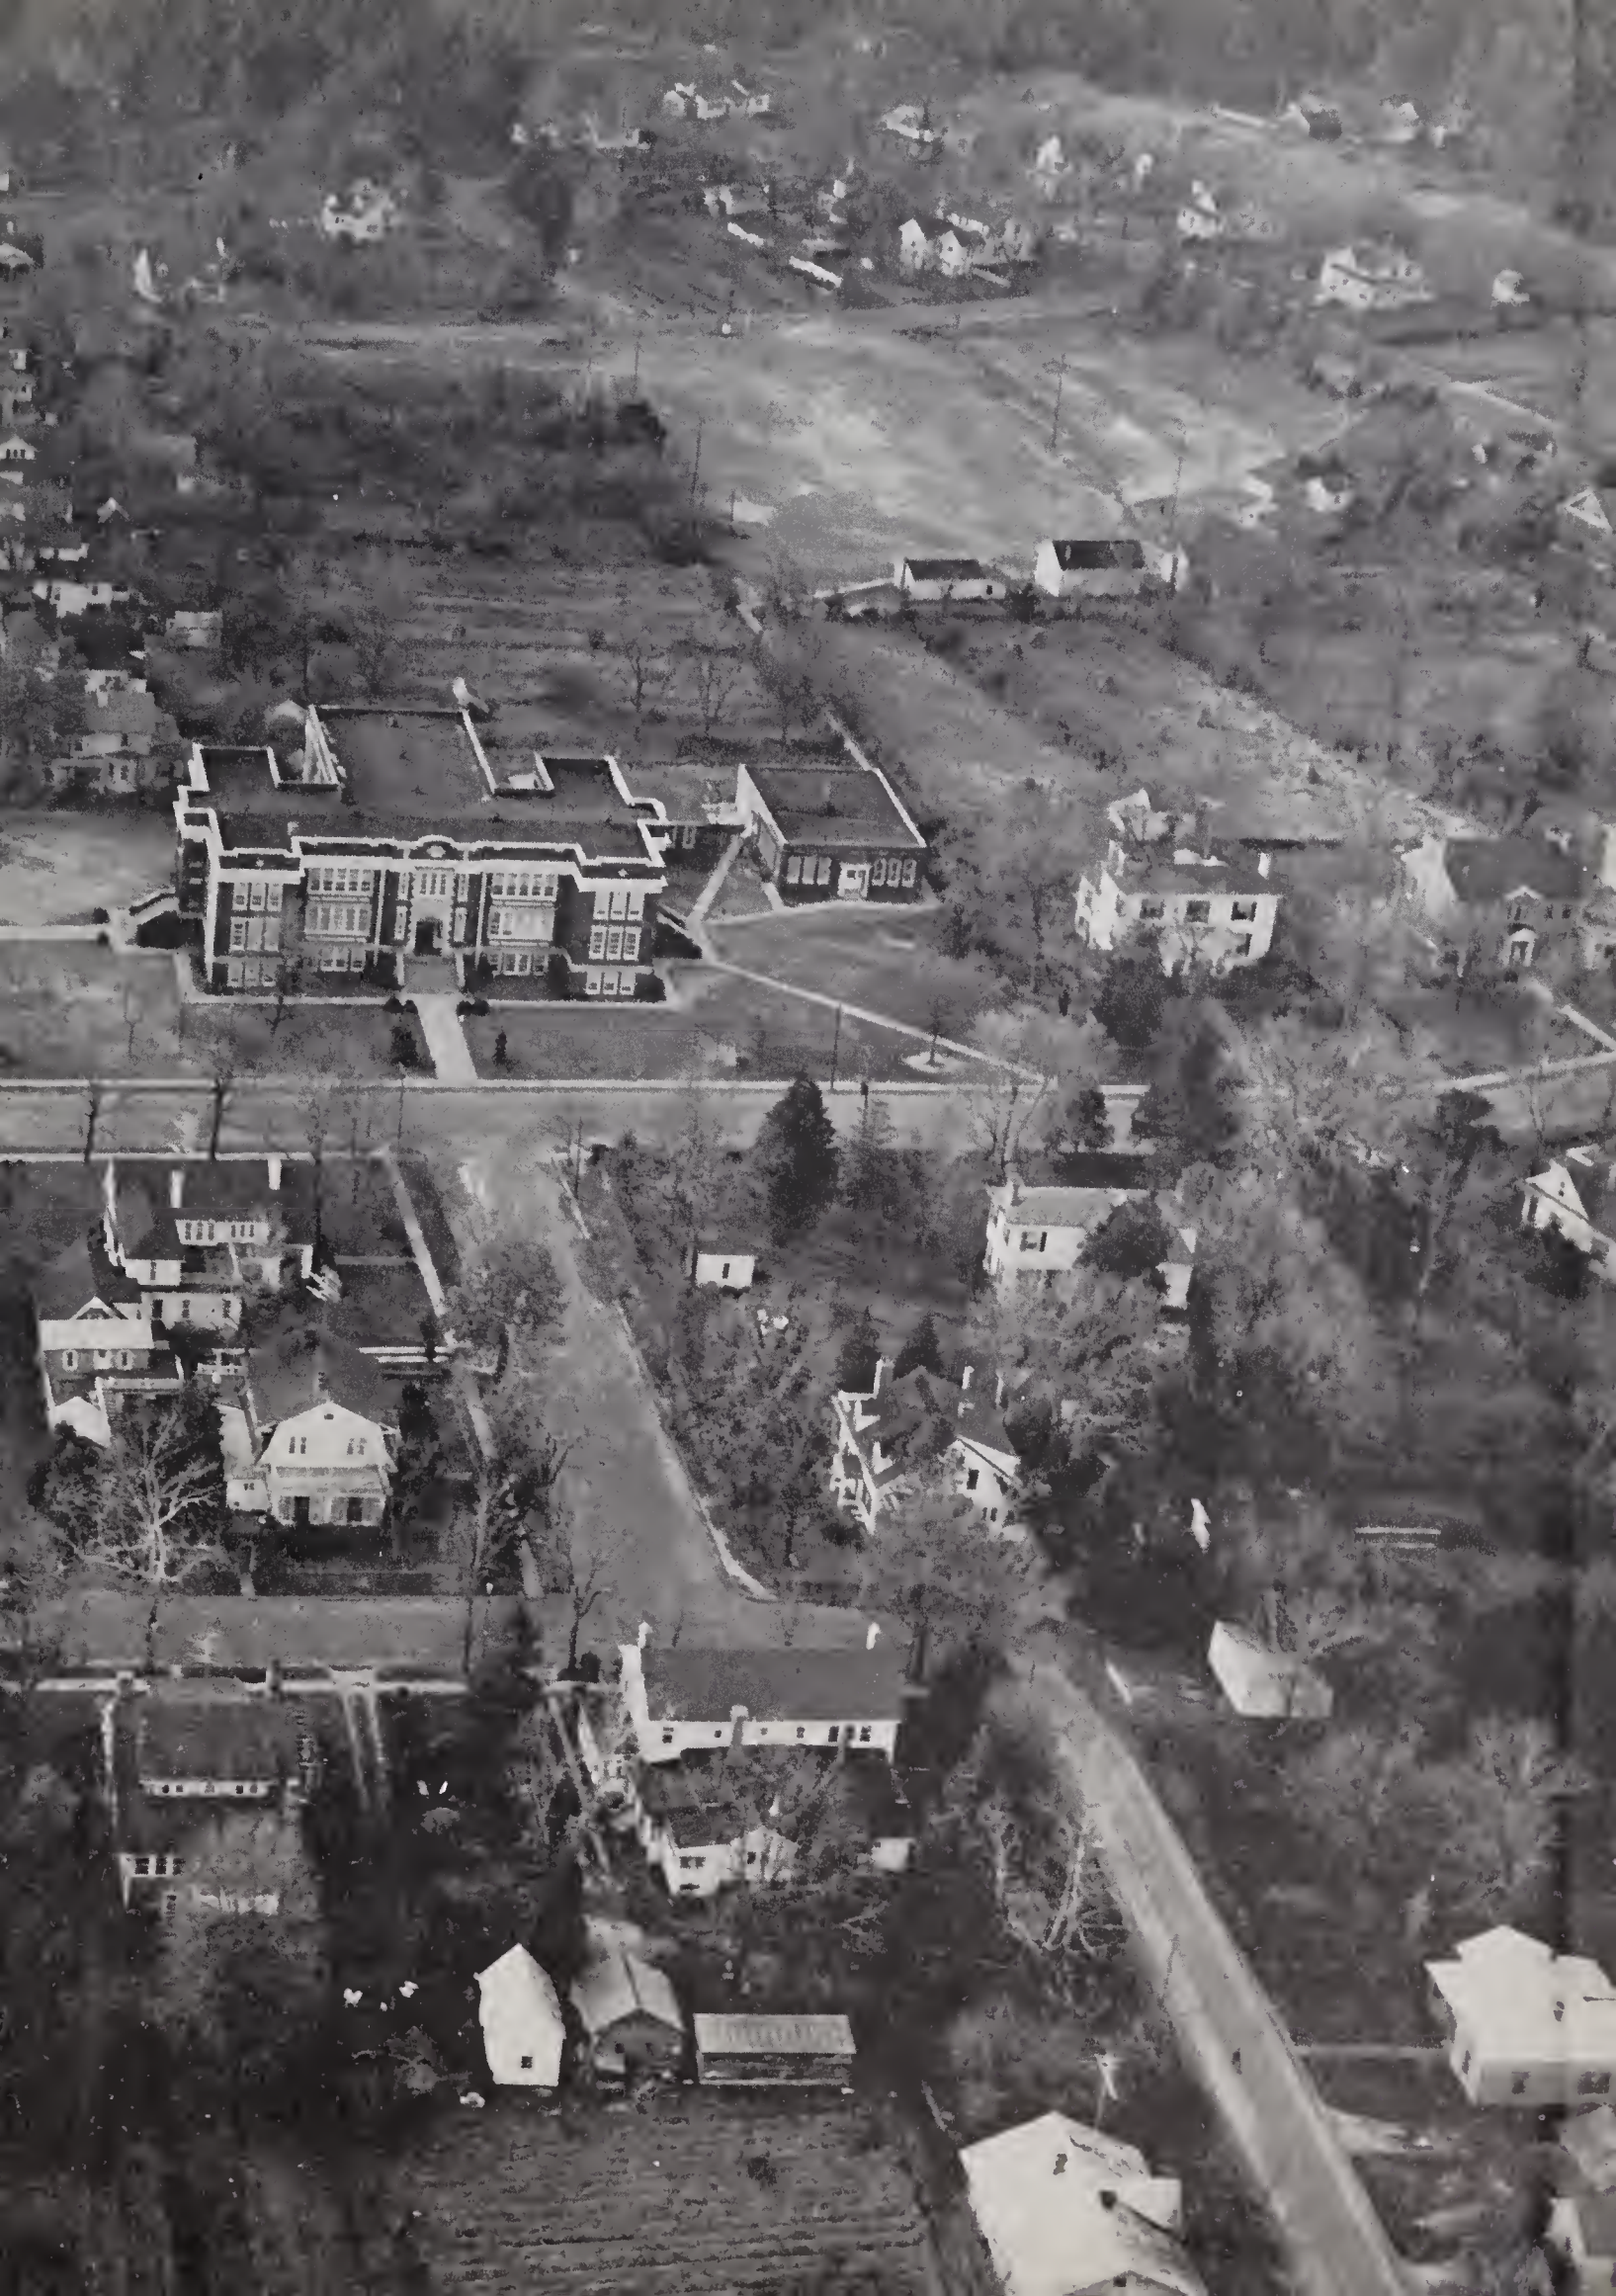
Dear Ann,

Well another year is down for us and only one more year to go. I can't believe it! Maybe we will be at Meredith together. I certainly do hope so. We can have a ball. Looks like our Jr.-Sr. is shaping up. A lot of the credit goes to you, too. Congratulations on going to Girls State. It's quite an honor. Are we going to have a ball this weekend or not ?!? When shall we go to Emporia ? Fri. or Sat. ? I hope we have as much fun this summer as we did last summer but maybe quite not as ——— !

I really have enjoyed living near you and being your neighbor. You are one of my very best friends and one of the sweetest and cutest girls I know. Lots of love and luck to you in everything that you attempt.


Love,
Carol
